

Israt Jahan Happy

Chandgaon R/A, Chittagong, Bangladesh | israt.happy@auw.edu.bd |

Education:

American International University Bangladesh (AIUB)

Masters of Science in Public Health

Sep 2017

Asian University for Women (AUW), Chittagong, Bangladesh

Bachelor of Science in Public Health & Minor in Development Studies

May 2015

Work Experience:

Asian University for Women

English Language Instructor, Pre-Access Academy

Aug 2021- Present

- Plan and implement lessons that consisted of skill building techniques for reading, writing, listening, and speaking.
- Administer and grade assignments and examinations to evaluate students' academic progress.
- Establish behavior rules and enforce procedures to maintain order in the virtual classroom.

Asian University for Women

Leadership Seminar Instructor, Access Academy

Aug 2019-Jul 2020

- Empowered almost 250 students to cultivate their leadership skills through lectures, slides, activities and interactive sessions.
- Instilled confidence into students to appreciate their capabilities and enable them to become higher achievers.
- Enhanced students' learning by optimizing wide range of instructional approaches and interactive classroom activities.

Asian University for Women

English Language Instructor, Pre-Access Academy

Jul 2018- Jul 2019

- Instructed students in the class through lectures, discussions, group activities and demonstrations of language concepts.
- Acted as a Facilitator to assist students in extracurricular activities to showcase their projects and talents in "Talent Night".
- Trained the local university teachers about the Learner-centered Teaching Method in Bamboo Grant Teacher's Training Program.

Asian University for Women

Senior Fellow, Pre-Access Academy

Oct 2017- Jun 2018

- Educated students to learn and communicate in English by conducting 16 hours of classes per week.
- Evaluated students' work, such as reading, writing and speaking by using teacher-developed rubrics.
- Conducted teacher's training for "Education Cells" targeting to educate the local school students from underprivileged community.

Asian University for Women

Teaching Assistant of Public Health

Jan 2017-May 2017

- Assisted in organizing course materials for "Data Analysis" course of public health.
- Held tutorial sessions on STATA basic knowledge and administered tests and quizzes.
- Guided students to design research projects, provided sessions on how to demonstrate data through flow charts, diagrams and data models.

Research Work/ Thesis:

Researcher at American International University Bangladesh; "Time Spent on Social Media and Effect on Diet and Physical Activities."

Jan 2017-Sep 2017

- Conducted individual research project with 119 participants.
- Data was collected from two international universities of Chittagong and analysis was done by using SPSS, STATA.

Researcher at Asian University for Women; "Clustering of Diet and Physical Activity among Class 12 Adolescent Girls in Bangladesh"

Aug 2014- May 2015

- Led and completed research project with 911 participants.
- Analyzed data using SPSS, STATA and Microsoft Excel to understand the correlation between diet and physical activity.

Enumerator at Innovations for Poverty Action; Stress Management Program for Female Entrepreneurs of Bangladesh.

Dec 2016- Aug 2017

- Conducted almost 200 in-person and phone survey using Survey CTO with entrepreneurs at Bangladesh Chamber of Commerce for Stress Management Program.
- Monitored survey quality and provided feedback for improvement of data collection.
- Maintained communication with the participants to continue follow up survey.