Certificate in Respect of the Asian University for Women

This is to certify that the Asian University for Women established in Bangladesh by an Act of Parliament of Bangladesh titled as the Asian University for Women Act, 2006 (Act No: 40 of the year 2006) is deemed as a recognized International University by the University Grants Commission of Bangladesh. The enactment into law of the University's Charter by the National Parliament of Bangladesh provides the requisite authority to the university to offer various academic programs and grant degrees that will be recognized for higher education and employment in Bangladesh. Also mutual agreements between governments of the various South Asian nations such as India, Sri Lanka, Nepal and Pakistan provide a regional recognition of universities once they are approved by the home country's University Grants Commission or other national higher education regulatory agencies.
